Information Item - Jennifer MacKay, Special Education student representative on the Council, is student teaching Spring Semester 1995. Another Special Education major will be appointed for the spring term.

Information Item - The names of five nominees from the Council have been forwarded to President Jorns for consideration for the Faculty Excellence Awards Committee as follows: L. Campanis, B. Findley, K. Lasley, L. Reven, and J. Guzowski.

Item 93-21 Review of the Major - Chemistry

Dr. Keiter gave an overview of the Chemistry Review of the Major and answered questions. The Council subcommittee consisting of Dr. Mike Havey, Chair, Dr. Beverly Findley, and Special Education student representative will report to the Council at the February 28 meeting.

Item 93-21 Subcommittee Report - Review of the Major - Psychology

R. Carson presented the subcommittee report for the Psychology Review of the Major, noting strengths/commendations and three needs areas with corresponding recommendations for improvement. Discussion followed and questions were answered by Dr. Yaffe.

NCA Visit - Dr. Steve Whitley spoke to the Council about the upcoming North Central Association (NCA) visit on February 6, 7, and 8, 1995. He discussed the process of reaccreditation which began eighteen months ago and culminated in the Self-Study Final Report. A team of nine consultant evaluators will meet with Eastern administrators, faculty, staff and students during the three-day visit. Dr. Whitley concluded his presentation by showing a videotape prepared for the NCA visit.

Information Item - J. McGaughey (motion) and H. Krehbiel-Reed (second) to waive the rule and add Item 95-1 to the agenda. Motion passed unanimously. H. Krehbiel-Reed (motion) and B. Findley (second) to waive the rule and vote on Item 95-1 at this meeting. Motion passed unanimously.

Item 95-1 Subcommittee Report - Appeals Committee

L. Reven, member of the Appeals Committee, reported on two student appeals: 1) be allowed to take a 3 s.h. math course concurrently with student teaching; 2) be allowed to take a 3 s.h. math course concurrently with student teaching (this student also needs a "C" in ENG 1001, which was not addressed in the appeal). The committee recommended that the first appeal be granted and that the second appeal be denied. Following discussion, M. Havey moved and H. Krehbiel-Reed seconded the motion to approve the first appeal. The motion was defeated with a vote of 3 Yes and 9 No. M. Havey moved and B. Findley seconded the motion to deny the second appeal. Motion passed unanimously. Therefore, both student appeals were denied.

Adjournment - The meeting was adjourned by consensus at 3:20 p.m.
